

Teign Valley H3 1234th Run Weekend

Friday 22nd to Bank Holiday Monday 25th August 2008

King George V Sports & Community Centre North Bovey Road, Moretonhampstead, Devon www.moretonhampstead.com

What you get for your money

3 nights camping at King George V Playing Fields, showers and toilets on site.
Very palatable and copious food on Saturday and Sunday, and Monday breakfast.

Friday evening pub run with a reasonably priced fantastic hot food buffet
(Approx £5 Please order in advance)

3 fantastic trails from site through the beautiful Devonshire countryside.

A Commemorative T-shirt, A real Goodie bag, not an envelope!

Saturday afternoon Devonshire Mini Hash Olympics

Real local ales and real local cider in the company of friends and great scenery.

Moretonhampstead Carnival Fete on Sunday afternoon.

*****WE ARE VERY SORRY*****

NO DOGS ARE ALLOWED AT THE VENUE

Numbers Limited to 123.4 so be sure to book your place

Price just £57 until 30th June 2008 ( Then £70 until the event)

Children under 11 £28 (Please state t-shirt size)

FOR REGO FORM CONTACT
Wigwam
28 Pine View Gardens
Torquay
TQ1 1JS
Phone: 01803
292159/202499
Web: www.tvh3.com
Email: tony@wigwamperkins.
fsnet.co.uk

Moretonhampstead is an ancient market town situated on the Eastern edge of Dartmoor in Devon. It sits in the shelter of hills on three sides and the beautiful Wray valley on the fourth. Dartmoor is only 4 miles away and no matter which road you take you cannot fail to be impressed by the breathtaking views. The town is about 15 miles from Exeter, Newton Abbot, Okehampton and Princetown and is a perfect place from which to visit the moors, the Devon countryside and the seaside. The town offers visitors opportunities for hiking, cycling, and pony trekking, fishing and just relaxing. There are a variety of cafes, pubs, local shops, nearby hotels, b&b's and a Backpacker's hostel.

The Drinking Club With a Running Problem